I dedicate this VOLUME to my beloved husband
Peyton Beaumont Randolph,
a descendant who has fulfilled,
most admirably, his rich heritage.

PREFACE

To the many SLAUGHTERS, COOKS, and BEAUMONTS, I offer these pages; trusting them to prove helpful or inspiring.

I also tender this PAPER to all who engage in research and recording; for any assistance it may contain.

These Family Histories are never completed; also they are never without errors.

I shall continue to 'write in here' and 'cross out there'.

I wish to acknowledge, with appreciation, the following, who offered valuable assistance:

Mr. John Fredrick Dorman: SLAUGHTER data, 1960.

Mrs. Clara (Beaumont) Bell: gift of Manuscript: MEMOIRS, by her father, Dr. Gulielmus Henry Beaumont.

Mrs. Gaston Parrish (Clara Maughon Bell): old family letters; DAR Paper # 339298; portrait of William Henry Beaumont.

SLAUGHTER

INTRODUCTION

ANCIENT LINEAGES

The early records of SLAUGHTERS (SLOGHTRES) of Slaughter, Gloucester, England, are noted in Burke's LANDED GENTRY, p.2068:

"Capt. Jack Hamilton Slaughter, formerly of Slaughter, Sherwood Foresters, present representative of the Slaughters, of Slaughter, co. of Gloucs. (Gloucester), born 1895; married Kathleen, daughter of John Candlish Lindsay....."

Lineage: Robert, son of Gerard de Sloghtre, living in 1185; by Mary, his wife, was grandfather of Gerard de Sloghtre, born ca 1230; married Isabel (b. 1235), sister and co-heiress of William de Albermere; and was father of William Slaughter, of Slaughter; married Basilia, daughter of Thomas de Besyles, of Buckland. His son, Henry Slaughter, of Slaughter, living 1330; married daughter of Sir John Aston, of Cold Aston, co. of Gloucs. His son, John Slaughter, of Slaughter, living 1359; married daughter of Thomas Chandon, of Coberley, co. of Cloucs. His son, Walter Slaughter had son, William Slaughter, living 1413. He had a son, Thomas Slaughter; married Alice Palmer, of co. of Warwick; died 1449, leaving younger son, who was ancestor of the Slaughters of Tenley, and another son John Slaughter, of Slaughter; married Elizabeth, daughter of Roger Draycott, of Draycott, Staffs (Staffordshire); father of John Slaughter, of Slaughter, born 1475; married daughter of John Chambers, of Atwell. He had several sons. Third son, Richard Slaughter, father of Richard Slaughter, of Sutton, Lincs. (Lincolnshire), born ca 1520; married daughter of John Bull, of Hereford. His son, Richard, of Sutton, born ca 1545; had George, b. 1575; father of Edward, b.1603; father of Bellingham; father of James; father of John, born 1701; father of John, b 1730; father of John, b. 1760; father of William (Sir), b. 1787"

"Arms:

Arg. a saltire az.

Crest:

Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle's head between two wings az beaked gold.

Motto:

DUM VIVO SPERO" . (While I live I hope).

In Fairbain's BOOK OF CRESTS; Vol. I, p. 509:

SLAUGHTER OF GLOUCESTER

Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle's head between two wings az beaked of the first.

SLAUGHTER OF HEREFORD

Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle's head arg, with wings addorsed sa.

SLAUGHTER OF WORCHESTER

A falcon with wings expanded.

SLAUGHTER

EARLY VIRGINIA

"In early deeds and records of early Virginia, we find the name of SLAUGHTER as far back as 1635, when JOHN SLAUGHTER took out a patent for land, 30 May, 1635."

"We find an old will of FRANCIS SLAUGHTER.....from certified records now in the State Library of Virginia. In this quaint will, he speaks of his mother-in-law, Maragaret Upton.....his brother-in-law, Col. Moses Fauntleroy.....his wife ELIZABETH.....friend and loving brother, Humphrey Booth."

"The Coat of Arms of the Slaughter Family is found on a seal to a bond of WILLIAM SLAUGHTER, as sheriff, 1685; examined by the editor, in Essex County Clerk's office; answering, in Burke's LANDED GENTRY, to Slaughters of Gloucester and Worcester. Arms: A saltire azure."

(Pecquest du Bellet, Louise: SOME PROMINENT VIRGINIA FAMILIES: Vol. IV, p. 399.)

"Slaughter: Arg. à saltire az. Seal to the bond of William Slaughter, as sheriff of Essex County, Virginia, in 1685."
(Bolton's AMERICAN ARMORY: p. 151.)

"Slaughter; Virginia: William Slaughter, Essex County, 1685:

Argent, a saltire azure,

Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle's head between two wings expanded azure, beaked gold."
(GENERAL ARMORY: Crozier; p. 120).

"Slaughter Coat of Arms:

Argent, a saltire azure.

Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or, an eagle's head between two wings expanded, azure, beaked or. "

COLONIAL FAMILIES OF THE SOUTHERN STATES OF AMERICA:

Hardy, Stella Pickett; p. 477.)

The above records prove the early Virginia Slaughters' Arms, with Crest, to be the same as Arms with Crest of early English (Slogh-tres) Slaughters, of Slaughter, Gloucester, England.

This indicates genealogical affiliation; though direct descent is not here-in charted.

It is noted that the Virginia Slaughters did not include the Motto; though this appendage was of 'later' pattern; not in general use until the seven-teenth century.

The Motto also was not necessarily hereditary.

The names Robert, John, William, James, George Slaughter, of Gloucester, England, continue in the Virginia Families.

James Slaughter served in the Revolutionary War; as private, Lieutenant, and Captain. (As Captain, appointed by his uncle, Col. George Slaughter).

He did not apply for a pension until two years before his death. His application, 9th day of August, 1831, under oath, duly signed, in Circuit Court, Logan Co. Ky., states:

"....That his former residence was in Culpeper Co. Va..... that he was a volunteer in the first Company of Minute Men raised in that county, under the command of Capt. Robt. Patton, and served in that capacity about six months; that ...in the fall of the year 1779 he was appointed a Lieut. in Capt. Benjamin Robert's Company, of Maj. Geo. Slaughter's Corps, of Crockett's Regiment; and raised his quota of recruits; marched...to the Falls of Ohio (now Louisville); that...in 1780 Col. Geo. Rogers Clark, Commandant of the Western District, undertaken an expedition against the Indians, and appealed to Col. or Maj. Slaughter for men; and they said deponant volunteered, raised a Company, and was appointed Captain; and commanded a Company, in that.. expedition...about five weeks; when he returned and re-joined his Company; that about the last of 1780, being sick with the ague...that he was furloughed by his uncle, Col. George Slaughter....that he returned to Virginia..was in bad health... did not recover until near the termination of the period for which the men were enlisted... and as the war was at an end... after the surrender of Cornwallis on the 19th of October, 1781, he did not return to Kentucky, but considered himself in service... was ready to obey any order which he might receive..... Signed: James Slaughter." (His attorney, Henry Northrup, Louisville, Ky., prepared Application.)

(Photocopy: from General Services Administration, Washington.)

"And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion that the applicant was a Revolutionary soldier and officer, and served in the manner set forth by him in... declaration. Signed: Asher W. Graham, Judge of Logan County Circuit Court." (Same photocopy as above).

James Slaughter's declaration, under oath, is the only record of his Captaincy found: but it proves his acting as Captain., (probably non-commissioned under his uncle, Col. George Slaughter).

" Slaughter, James, (A.G. 50,163); Lieut. in Crockett's Regt., Va. State Troops... He was appointed Lieut. in 1779, in Capt. Benjamin Robert's Co., Col. George Slaughter's Corps, Crockett's Regt. In 1780, he went with Genl. Clark on an expedition against the Indians, returned sick, and did not rejoin his command in Kentucky. He served to Dec. , 1781, when his Regt. was disbanded."

(Brumbaugh's REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORDS, VIRGINIA; p. 570).

After the war he removed to Mercer Co., Ky; resided there some years, near Harrodsburg.

He was married (2), to Mrs. Ann (Nancy) (Johnson) Johnson. No issue. (Letter, 1960, Mr. John Frederick Dorman.)

He was married (3), 1830, to Mildred Bocock. No issue. (DAR Paper 339298. Mr. Dorman. Brumbaugh, as above; p. 570.)

"Towards the end of his life he married Mildred ----, thirty or forty years younger than himself. Mildred Slaughter, widow of James, was administratrix of his will. . . 24th May, 1839, Mildred Slaughter writes from Oak Grove, (Christian Co.) Ky." (Brumbaugh; p. 570.)

James Slaughter wrote his will 27 August, 1831, Logan Co. Ky.; added a Codicil, 12 November, 1833. Will was probated 2 Dec., 1833, Logan Co. Ky. This will names:

"... My beloved wife Mildred Slaughter ... To the children of my son, Wm. H. Slaughter ... To the children of my daughter TABBY COOK, decd... To the children of son Arthur Slaughter ... To children of daughter Susan Bell, decd... To children of daughter Betsy Gatewood... To children of son Matthew... To the children of son Robert F., decd... To my daughter Patsey Allenworth... My beloved wife Mildred Slaughter... Richard Bibb Jr. and Thomas Slaughter... Executrix and Executors of this my last will ... this 27th day of Aug. 1831." (Photocopy, will: Book F.; p. 50; Logan Co. Ky.)

Ky., with her family, after the Revolutionary War, after 1781. Married in the fall, 9 November, 1799, in Mercer Co., Ky., THE REV. VALENTINE COOK JR. (Of whom later).

Tabby (Slaughter) Cook braved a rugged frontier life, in Kentucky, with her dynamic and colorful teacher, lecturer, preacher, husband. She died between 26 March and 6 April, 1829 Logan Co. Ky.; dates of the writing and probate of her will.

In her will she mentions her husband (predeceased, 1822); leaves negroes to her daughters Eliza and SUSAN: entrusts to her son Richard her estate, also her youngest children: "William, John, SUSAN, and Francis (Franklin)"; but does not name other older (known) children. They were evidently grown and away from home. She dictated a death bed will; as there were only a few days between the writing and the probate.

She signed her will as TABYTHA COOK, with seal.

COOK

INTRODUCTION

Extensive research in England yielded records and data pertinent to (if not proving) the identity of the English JOHN HAMILTON COOK, father of VALENTINE COOK SR.; immigrant, ca 1750, into York County, Pennsylvania, from Amsterdam, Holland; after his family's emigration, ca 1736, from England.

Early readings of ancient COOKS and HAMILTONS, begin in Arran Island, on Firth of Clyde, Buteshire, Scotland; both families, sea faring folk. Cooks and Hamiltons intermarried before emigrating from Scotland into Yorkshire, England.

(Records in England; Mrs. M.A.J. Langford, Brighton, England. Data; Mrs. Bennett F. Hughes.)

COOK

GENEALOGY

- I. JOHN HAMILTON COOK: b. ca 1700-1713; within Yorkshire, England, area, or Stepney, near London. (Records below indicate possible dates and places of birth). He is recorded as being a cousin of the renowned circumnavigator, Capt. James Cook, who was born in 1728 at Marton Parish, Cleveland, Yorkshire; attended school at Great Ayton, Yorkshire.

(BIOGRAPHY OF THE REVEREND VALENTINE COOK JR., A.M., by Edward Stevenson D.D., 1858. HISTORY OF MONROE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA, Morton, O.F: Mrs. Bennett F. Hughes.)

YORKSHIRE POLL BOOK, gives:

REGISTER OF SKIPTON:

"1686-Burial of John, son of Matthew Cooke." This shows early Cookes in Yorkshire, by the name, John.

In same REGISTER: "1741-James Cook at Whitby. John Cook at Skipton." This John could have been John Hamilton Cook; as his son (below) Valentine Cook, b. ca 1732, would have been about ten years old at this time.

"From Whitby, old port on the Yorkshire Coast, fishermen and mariners would have gone to settle in the Thames Estuary, near London; in Parishes, like St. Dunstan's, Stepney." (Mrs. M.A.J. Langford, Brighton, England.)

YORKSHIRE PARISH REGISTER SOCIETY; (GREAT AYTON); Vol. XC:

"1721-Marriage of John Cook and Elizabeth Easton, both of Westerdale in the Parish-By banns."

Assuming that John and James Cook were cousins, John (if born ca 1700) could have been married at Great Ayton, where James (cousin) attended school. (Showing possible family connections.)

(Cokes (Cooks) in this Great Ayton area, 1605-1783. At Marton, COOKS CLOSE, on record as oldest Cook property.)

REGISTER OF ST. DUNSTAN'S, STEPNEY; BAPTISMS:

"1711 6 Nov. John son of Richard Cook, mariner, of Limehouse, and Mary.

1712 21 Aug. John son of John Cook, mariner, of Wapping, and Ann.

1713 7 Dec. John son of John Cook, mariner, of Limehouse, and Mary."

There were also Hamilton entries (uncopied) here. However, there was not a John Hamilton Cook.

(This Parish near London, near the river docks; where marriages of sailors, and baptisms of their children are recorded.)

A Bishop of London Marriage License, 1720-1: "John Cook, bachelor, 24, and Eliz. Vahon widow, 27, at St. Paul's, Shadwell."

(Research and Copies of Records: Mrs. M.A.J. Langford.)

- II. VALLENTINE COOK SR.: b. ca 1732, Yorkshire, or London areas, in England; removed to Amsterdam, Holland, with stepfather, Mr. ---Sly, and mother. With them he came into Philadelphia, ca 1750. He married, ca 1755, York County, Pa., SUSANNAH BAUGHMAN (BOUGHMAN)
(Mrs. Bennett F. Hughes.)

"When six years of age, after his father's death, his mother remarried. He was taken to Amsterdam, Holland, and reared there. He received a tolerable education in English and German. He came to this country before the Revolution... (took) a decided and active part in that memorable struggle for independence.

He married in Pennsylvania...After several years he moved to Western Virginia...then called Greenbrier County." (Now Monroe Co., W. Va.) (BIOGRAPHY above. Copy, Mrs. J. Wells Vick.)

VALENTINE COOK, patriot and soldier during the Revolution, built Cook's Fort on his farm; also a powder mill; supplied food for soldiers and civilians; served with Botetourt Co., Va. Militia, under Capt. James Henderson. (RECORDS: p. 178; Va. State Library. HISTORY OF MONROE CO., VA.; Oren F. Morton; p. 329. DAR Paper # 296099: Mrs. Bennett F. Hughes.)

His will, written 1779, Greenbrier Co., Va., named his wife Susannah; named only four of his eight children. He bequeathed lands to his sons Jacob and VALENTINE Cook; directed division of his remaining property between his sons William and Adam, also William's daughter, Jean (Jenny). He mentioned his grist and powder mills. He signed his will as VALENTINE COOK, with seal; 18 Nov., 1797; Greenbrier Co., Virginia. He was buried on his farm, Cook's Fort.

(Certified copy of will. Copy from BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF THE REV. VALENTINE COOK, A.M.; p. 10; by Edward Stevenson D.D.)

Susannah (Baughman) Cook (Revolutionary War Baughman (Boughman), after her husband's death, with her sons, removed to Kentucky, near Harrodsburg. She and sons accumulated large acreages of land. Her red brick mansion is yet standing.

Her will, 1807, Will Book C, Lincoln Co., Ky., names eight children; David, (a Lieut. in the Revolution), John, Henry, Jinny (Jean), daughter of son William, Jacob, VALENTINE, Christina, and Adam. Christina m. Phillip Hammon (d).

She died soon after 1807, while on a visit to the old home, Cook's Fort, Greenbrier Co., Va., and was buried beside her husband there.

(Data, Mrs. Bennett F. Hughes, 1961.Desc., Christina Cook.)

III. VALENTINE COOK JR. : b. 1765, in York County, Pennsylv-

vania, (Family records in York County, Pennsylvania); removed with his parents to Greenbrier Co., Va., when young. He attained a common English education, becoming advanced in the German language; evidencing at an early age a strong and vigorous mind. His father sent him to Cokesbury College, Abingdon, Maryland, 1786. In 1788, he entered the Methodist ministry, and served in Philadelphia, New York, Pittsburg, Baltimore, and Lexington, as a powerful lecturer, debater, and preacher.

In 1798, he was appointed Presiding Elder to Cumberland District, which included Logan Co. Ky. Here, in 1798 or 1799, the Rev. Valentine Cook was married to TABITHA SLAUGHTER (V-2 SLAUGHTER), daughter of LIEUT. JAMES and ELIZABETH (HAMPTON) SLAUGHTER.

(BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH, pp. 22 and 23. DAR Paper 339298, Mrs. Gaston Parrish.)

"In the biography of my grandfather, the Rev. Valentine Cook, written by Bishop Bascom...Methodist Church South, and Dr. Stevenson, a resident of Russellville, Kentucky...a cousin of our former Vice President Adlai Stevenson, assisted by my mother, Susan Bell (Cook) Beaumont...gave many interesting details...not found elsewhere...He was tall, gangling in structure....in appearance much like an Indian. This fact, and his speaking the Indian language, saved his life once, when he was attacked by these savages."

(Note: Bishop Bascom of Ky., compiled data, preparing to write BIOGRAPHY, but passed material to Dr. Stevenson, who wrote it. Dr. Beaumont's mother is credited in BIOGRAPHY as contributor.)

"Valentine Cook was a learned man, speaking fluently eight languages, the Dutch especially. He taught school, and it is said that Henry Clay and Bishop Bascom were his pupils... that they acquired their power of oratory from him, as in that art he excelled. His large audiences were sometimes so enchanted, that in their spasms of ecstasy, their hair, being worn in queues, in their jerkings, would pop like whips."

"Father Cook, as he was reverently called, carried a Bible printed in Dutch, for the benefit of the many pioneer Dutch people of Kentucky. I have seen it, in possession of my Uncle Tom (Thomas F.) Cook."

(MEMOIRS: Dr. Gulielmus Henry Beaumont, 1910.)

"The writer, (Dr. Stevenson) has a number of letters addressed to Mr. Cook's daughter, Mrs. Susan Beaumont, (mother of Dr. Beaumont), when she was collecting materials for LIFE of her father."

(BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH; p. 48.)

In 1779-1800, the Rev Valentine Cook was appointed Principal of Bethel Institute, Jessamine Co, Ky. (This was the second Methodist college established in this country; the first being Cokesbury College, Abigdon, Maryland.)

In 1806, he settled on Muddy Creek, Logan Co., Ky. a few miles from Russellville. Here he spent the rest of his life teaching, preaching, and building pioneer Kentucky history. He died there, 14 August, 1822.

ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF METHODISM, by The Rev. James Lee, D.D., and others; p. 360; includes a photograph of the grave of The Rev. Valentine Cook Jr., a "few miles from Russellville, Ky.". Underneath a large tree, the grave is enclosed with a white plank fence.

(HISTORY OF RUSSELLVILLE AND LOGAN COUNTY KENTUCKY; by.... Findley; Book II. Obituary, Weekly Messenger, Russellville, Ky. Copy Mrs. J. Wells Vick.)

His will, written 12 Aug., 1822, probated 7 October, 1822, did not name his children; he calls them "sons and daughters"; directs that the property be under the control of his wife, Tabitha.

(Burke's LANDED GENTRY, p. 126 (1939 Edition).

NOTE: ANCIENT LINEAGES are recorded here, not as representing the ancestral root of the Beaumonts, from Yorkshire England, into Virginia, and their descendants; but as data indicative of their belonging to some branch of the ancient French-English HOUSE OF BEAUMONT.

Family tradition, and data, state that their ancestor came from Normandy, to England, with William the Conqueror; commanded the right wing of a Regiment in Battle of Hastings, 1066; for which he received many Lordships. He is recorded as the earliest Sir Robert de BELLOMONT; Lord of Beaumont, (Manor of Over Whitley), among many other Lordships.

INTRODUCTION does not embrace presumptions; but is included to stimulate further research.

BEAUMONT

MEMOIRS

By

GULIEMUS HENRY BEAUMONT M.D.
1910

"Family History... When my family came to America..."

These are the opening lines within a faded book, written by GULIEMUS HENRY BEAUMONT M.D. ; (son of a French-blooded father, of England, Virginia, Tennessee); an early day Texas physician; a Confederate soldier.

At the age of seventy four, from an invalid's chair, this proud old gentleman, in frail script, recorded genealogy, history, and word portraits of his BEAUMONTS, of Yorkshire England; who immigrated to Lynchburg, Virginia, in 1817. He wove his family thread further; connecting the BEAUMONTS with the COOKS of Virginia and Kentucky.

"My two uncles, Charles William Beaumont, and Mathias Beaumont, being agents for the British Government for the purchase of tobacco, made trips across the Atlantic, between Liverpool and Lynchburg, Virginia, U.S.... In 1817 they located here... established themselves in the tobacco business; carried on an extensive trade.... Their oldest brother Joseph, in Liverpool, never immigrated to this country... His descendants now, 1910... all... reside in Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England."

"Uncle Charles W. married a Miss Haxhall, of Virginia; a most beautiful lady, with an angelic disposition;... She bore him two daughters, Mary Ann and Clara Haxhall Beaumont, my favorite cousin, after whom I named my eldest daughter, Clara. (Clara (Beaumont) Bell).

Uncle Charles Beaumont was highly educated, speaking Latin and Greek; and was a graduate in Medicine...He never practiced, except in charity."

"A few years after they established themselves in Lynchburg, their mother, with her two youngest sons, William, my father, and Henry F. Beaumont...came over...They later moved to Clarksville, Tennessee, on the Cumberland River. They built a great tobacco emporium. Here, 'Beaumont Brothers', for many years, carried on a successful business."

"The site of Clarksville is on seven hills. On the summit of the sixth, my father's residence stood; with an expansive yard (note: deed states thirty two acres), containing trees of choice kinds, with a variety of shrubbery and flowers; all under the supervision of my mother." (Susan Bell (Cook) Beaumont).

"The place commanded a view of twelve miles up the Cumberland. A most exciting sight was that of the magnificent steam boats, plying from New Orleans to Nashville, racing at night, like great monsters, with great eyes (their furnaces), coming around the bend; the pulsations causing the very hills to quiver."

"Grandmother Beaumont had only one daughter, Elizabeth. She had been betrothed to a "Lord Somebody"; but Elizabeth joined her brothers and mother, in America, and married Mr. Ferguson, an honorable and high toned citizen. Their daughter, Maria Virginia Ferguson married a Mr. Statham, of Lynchburg."

"My father, William married Miss Susan Bell Cook, daughter of the famous Methodist pioneer preacher of Kentucky, Valentine Cook. His wife, (Tabitha Slaughter) was the daughter of Capt. James Slaughter, brother of Gabriel Slaughter, Governor of Kentucky....."

BEAUMONT

GENEALOGY

- I. MATTHEW BEAUMONT: b. 1748, at Halifax, Yorkshire, England; of French ancestry. "They came over there (England) with William the Conqueror" (1066), is within most Beaumont Family data; but without consecutive records.) His birth date, not available, was computed from death date, 1803, also age, fifty-five years, in record procured by Mrs. M. A. J. Langford, Genealogist, Brighton, Sussex, England, 1961.

Yorkshire records, Halifax, Huddersfield, Slaithwaite, and other villages, abound in Beaumonts, other than MATTHEW and his oldest son JOSEPH (II-I, later). They had American Beaumonts' given names, Charles, William, Henry, Francis, Mary, Maria, Ann, Elizabeth; indicating the possible root of MATTHEW BEAUMONT and his descendants.

(Copy, Records: from Mrs. Langford.)

MATTHEW BEAUMONT was first a mason; later, 1799, he is recorded as a Tobacconist.

His granddaughter, Mrs. Clara (Beaumont) Wisdom stated, 1912: "Grandfather wove and manufactured fine broadcloth, which gentlemen always wore. .I never knew ours to wear anything else." DIRECTORY, 1838, by -- White; (Author) Slaithwaite, Yorkshire, England gives: "Woolen Manufacturers - Joseph Beaumont."

DIRECTORY, 1822, by E. Baine, of Huddersfield, Yorkshire, Eng. gives:

"Tea Dealers- Tobacco and Snuff- Manufacturers, Wholesale- Joseph Beaumont, Market Place."

This indicates that JOSEPH (II-I) carried on the two manufacturing projects of his father, MATTHEW.

(Records; Copy, from Mrs. Langford, 1961.)

MATTHEW BEAUMONT married, 1778, at Halifax, Yorkshire:

Marriage By Banns, 13 March, 1778, at Halifax:

"Matthew Beaumont, mason, of Halifax, and Mary Boothroyd, of the same place, by me, E. Nilson, Curate."

(Record; Copy, from PARISH REGISTER, Halifax; supplied by Parish Clerk, to Mrs. Langford, Brighton, Eng.)

MATTHEW BEAUMONT died 1803, at Halifax, England.

HALIFAX WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL-BURIAL REGISTER: " 1803, 12 August-Burial of Matthew Beaumont, of Halifax, age 55. "

(Record; Copy, from Mrs. Langford.)

- I. MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT: b. 1757 (tombstone inscription); baptised 6 April, 1760:

REGISTER, Warley Chapel, near Halifax, England:

"1760, 6 April, MARY BOOTHROYD, daughter of Daniel Boothroyd." There were sisters, Ann, Sarah, and Leah; brothers, Daniel and Joseph. Her mother, Ann, was buried 1764; her father, 1778; age 88 years.

(Record; Copy, from Mrs. Langford.)

She was married 1778, at Halifax, to MATTHEW BEAUMONT, as above.

MATTHEW and MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT, though married in the Established Church of England, (Mary was also baptised here), evidently became dissenters; joined the Wesley Movement, Methodist Church. Their children were christened in the Halifax Wesleyan Methodist Chapel; also Matthew was buried from there.

REGISTER (MS): HALIFAX WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL: CHRISTENINGS:

(Note birthdates given of the last two.)

(Record; Copy, procured through Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London; by Mrs. M. A. J. Langford, 1961.)

NOTE:

Twelve children are recorded above. Evidently six daughters did not survive; as there are no later records of them; and they were not known or recorded by Virginia Beaumonts. Therefore, herein, only six children and descendants are recorded. JOSEPH, eldest son, is given Number II-I, according to Dr. Beaumont's and Mrs. Wisdom's data. This is not according to above Chapel Register, Halifax, England.

MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT was married (2nd.)
1806, at Halifax, Yorkshire, Eng. , to Joseph Moorhouse.

Marriage, by License, 13 October, 1806, at Halifax:

"JOSEPH MOORHOUSE, of the Parish of Pennystone, clothier, and MARY BEAUMONT, widow, of Halifax, by me, William Willmolt, Curate."

(Record; Copy, from Parish Register; Mrs. Langford.)

MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT MOORHOUSE evidently was widowed (2nd) before 1818, when she came into Lynchburg, Virginia. She also must have removed to Huddersfield, Yorkshire, Eng. She possible joined her oldest son

Joseph there. Her tombstone inscription, 1840, at Clarksville, Tenn. read: "of Huddersfield, Eng. "

"When she joined her children in the New World, they asked her to take back the Beaumont name, so people would know how to place her as their mother. On her tombstone her name reads: MARY BOOTHROYD BEAUMONT, AGED 83 YRS., OF HUDDERSFIELD, ENG." (Mrs. Clara (Beaumont) Wisdom, (granddaughter); data, 1912.)

MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT lived at Lynchburg, Virginia until after 1829. She joined her sons, at Clarksville, Tenn; died, 12 Sept. , 1840; was buried in the old City Cemetery (now River view). In 1961 the oldest stone in the Beaumont plot is illegible. This tomb is assumed to be that of Mrs. Beaumont.

Issue: (SIX children; ones of record in United States)

I MATTHEW BEAUMONT and MARY (BOOTHROYD) BEAUMONT

II-I JOSEPH BEAUMONT: b. 1789, Halifax, Yorkshire, England; m----. (Children, grandchildren and gr. grandchildren mentioned, but no names of wife or children proved.) "He remained in England, and conducted family tobacco business, with his three brothers in Lynchburg, Va."

"Those Beaumonts, now of Huddersfield, are descendants of our uncle Joseph; his grandsons and great grandsons." (Mrs. Wisdom; 1912. Dr. Beaumont, 1910.)

MANCHESTER ENGLAND DIRECTORY; by ----- Slater; 1848:

"Beaumont and Son, Tobacconists, 3 Todd Street." This rather well identifies Joseph Beaumont, son of Matthew. There are other records of a later Joseph Beaumont, perhaps his son:

CENSUS RETURNS FOR HUDDERSFIELD: 1851:

"Clare Hall; Joseph Beaumont: Age 38 Tobacco Manufacturer.
Maria " " 33 wife.

Ann Beaumont:	Age	13
Maria Jane "	"	9
William Arthur "	"	7
Reginald E. "	"	4
Hannah Maud "	"	3
Jessie Clare "	"	4 months. "

Miss Laura Beaumont, Clarksville, Tenn., and Mrs. Virginia Maria Statham, Lynchburg, Va., cousins, in 1890, visited Beaumont kin, in England. They presumably visited the descendants of Joseph Beaumont, at Huddersfield; and afforded Mrs. Wisdom and Dr. Beaumont, above information.
(Mrs. Wm. F. Dority, 1961.)

II-2 CHARLES WILLIAM BEAUMONT M.D.: B. ca 1796, Halifax, Yorkshire, England; immigrated, 1817, to Lynchburg, Virginia, with older brother, Mathias, as agents for the British Government, in tobacco export business. He was a graduate in Medicine, but practiced only in charity.

He married, ca 1822, Catherine Haxhall; presumably daughter of Phillip and Clara (Walker) Haxhall, Petersburg and Richmond, Va. She died in early married life.

(Note: William and Catherine Haxhall, England. Son, Phillip, of Petersburg, Va., m., 1801, Clara Walker. "All Haxhalls of this country are descendants of Phillip." HISTORY OF BRISTOL PARISH; pp. 179-180; Dr. Philip Slaughter.)

HISTORY OF MADISON STREET METHODIST CHURCH, by Emma J.H. Lupton:

'HENRY F. BEAUMONT--1800-1864.'

'In 1829, from the old "Dominion State", there came a young Englishman, Henry F. Beaumont...whose name is synonymous with spirituality, education, charity, public enterprise, and every other good cause.

Mr. Beaumont was born in Halifax, Yorkshire, England, at twelve o'clock in the evening of the last day of the last hour, of the last year, of the last century.....He lived in two centuries before he was an hour old.....

When this founder of Methodist Church in Clarksville, arrived with his wife Sarah Anderson Beaumont, and their four children, (later increased to nine)...they created a stir....The old fashioned wagon, with six draft horses, drew up in front of "upper tavern"...where old Franklin House now stands, and was said to look like one of the big freighter barges on the river (Cumberland). The family came in a carriage, drawn by four horses....He soon became one of Clarksville's most influential and successful business men, and was preeminently a devout Christian....

Today, Henry F. Beaumont and his saintly wife, Sarah Anderson Beaumont, rest near the hilltop, in Riverview Cemetery; overlooking the winding river and the eternal hills."

His will, written 6 Dec., 1864, provided for his wife, Sarah, and his children, though his youngest were not named. Charles William, Egbert, and Sterling F., also his son-in-law, Thomas W. Wisdom (husband of daughter, Clara A. Beaumont), were named.

After the war Gabriel Beaumont completed his medical studies and began practice in Harris County, near Houston. He next practiced at Navasota, Grimes Co. Here he was married, 6 Dec., 1870, to NANCY DAVIS DUKE, b. 28 Oct., 1854. In 1886, they removed to West Texas, Coleman; where he completed sixty faithful years in his profession.

He died 29 Sept. , 1933, at Coleman. His wife died 18 March, 1935.

REMINISCENCES OF THE TERRY RANGERS, by J.K. P(olk) Blackburn, Lieut..Published by the Littlefield Foundation for Southern History; University of Texas, 1919:

"The Northern and Southern Regts. were gathered for the great battle of Murfreesboro... Our Regiment was camped at Nolensville, south of Nashville... Suddenly a large force..was moving in on us...I was in command of Company F., the Captain being sick... Colonel Harrison... said: "Lieutenant form your Company...hold your position, while I form the Regiment behind you, to supporting position"... The heavy firing of the enemy.. made it impossible for men or horses to..face.. and stand still...I ordered with all the vehemence I possessed... Gabe Beaumont of Company A.. said: "I will stand. Form your Company on me." He took his stand... The bullets were flying... I heard a ball strike near Beaumont... I saw his gun fall, but he stood perfectly still, until I approached. I asked: " Gabe are you badly hur^y?" He replied: "I think I am." I sent him off, with a man to help him. He was shot out of service, but he demonstrated... what true bravery could accomplish. I met this brave hero, many years later, in Coleman, Texas. He had made a success of his profession..."

Dr. Beaumont's daughter, Stella (Beaumont) McCord, added to this, as it had been related to her by her father; that he was offered an officer's place of honor, but modestly refused it, explaining that he didn't want to be advanced over men so much older than himself. He was only seventeen years old.
